Honours Bachelor of Illustration

Honours Baccalaureate Degree | 4 years
Trafalgar Road Campus (Oakville)

Learn to make great art while making a great living.

Our studio-focused curriculum prepares you for the real world

- Explore drawing and painting* and digital approaches like motion, 3D and the web
- Take more illustration-specific courses than most visual communication programs.
- Develop illustrations for publishing, film and motion, games and editorial
- Get professional experience during a 14-week work term.

*Note: You'll be required, as part of the curriculum, to study life drawing and painting. This regularly includes drawing the nude figure and the study of human anatomy.

Standing out in a crowded marketplace

Illustration students at Sheridan explore both material and digital media. You'll also develop a visual philosophy to go along with your technical mastery. This broad-based approach will enable you to apply your Illustration degree across a wide range of career paths, while preparing you to adapt to exciting developments in visual communication.

Telling stories

Illustration technology is constantly evolving, but the core skill — the ability to tell stories and communicate ideas visually — never changes. In Sheridan's Illustration bachelor's degree program, you'll learn to create images with a purpose that stand out and make an impact.

Career Opportunities

Many illustrators develop highly successful freelance careers or work in creative studios. Sheridan will prepare you for employment by teaching you business and marketing skills. Learn how to run a small business, pitch an idea, assemble a dynamic portfolio, collaborate with a team, manage copyright and more.
