- Project management skills.
- Sustainability and socially responsible practices.
- 4-month co-op semester.
- Building systems and construction knowledge.

A professional learning environment

At Sheridan, we've applied interior design principles to our own learning environments. Our studios are designed to look and feel like professional spaces, rather than classrooms. Interior design is a mobile computing program, which means you'll have unlimited access to software, class lecture notes, PowerPoint presentations, reading lists, assignment outlines, and all other course resources.

ARIDO-recognized and CIDA-accredited program

Sheridan's innovative Honours Bachelor of Interior Design program has always kept pace with rising professional standards in the interior design industry. Our program is recognized by the Association of Registered Interior Designers of Ontario (ARIDO), and accredited by the Council for Interior Design Accreditation (CIDA).

Career opportunities

While many of our graduates will be able to go directly into established architectural or interior design firms, many other career paths beckon.

- Math, Grade 11* or 12 (M or U or equivalent) with a minimum 60%
- Four other Grade 12 subjects (M or U level, one co-op credit course accepted) *Applicants with Grade 11 Math must have one additional Grade 12 (M or U) course
- Minimum 65% overall average on your highest six Grade 12 (M or U) from above.
- Visual Arts, Interior Design or Communication Technology credit (Grade 11 or 12 any level, workplace 'E' level not accepted; or postsecondary level); OR an art, design, media or architecture-related Ontario College certificate, diploma or degree; OR a portfolio.*

OR

- Two semesters of postsecondary education with a minimum 65% overall average including English, Math, and a Visual Art (or portfolio*) as outlined above.

Visual art or portfolio

*Applicants without a Visual Art as outlined above will be asked to submit a portfolio.

The Office of the Registrar will update your application in the Sheridan Applicant Portal to notify you if a portfolio is required. Detailed instructions will be provided. Please note that there is a portfolio assessment fee.

The portfolio consists of two components:

- Statement of Intent: Introduce yourself and tell us why you want to explore interior design at Sheridan.
- Creative Work Portfolio: Submit 3–5 examples of your own work that exemplify your creativity. Demonstrate your unique creativity and personal identity as someone who wants to explore interior design.

Applicant selection

Eligible applicants are selected based on previous academic achievement (the average of their required credits as outlined above) plus the results of their portfolio if required.

Applicants who do not meet the admission requirements for this program may be advised individually regarding other related programs.

English language proficiency

All applicants whose first language is not English must meet Sheridan's English Proficiency Requirements.

Refer to the website for full admission requirements.
