Ontario College Diploma | 2 years
Davis Campus (Brampton) / Hazel McCallion Campus (Mississauga)

Gain foundational skills for your career in business.

Learn fundamental business skills, then specialize

In just two years, you can earn a diploma that will expand your career potential in the field of business. You'll start by building a strong foundation of fundamental skills in the areas of marketing, human resources, finance and accounting. Then, beginning in your second semester, you can choose from nearly 50 electives in specialized business topics that interest you the most.

Collaborate with peers, professors and professionals

Apply your new skills right away through group projects that develop leadership, teamwork and collaboration. You'll be supported in small classroom environments by professors with a wide range of industry experience and connections. You can also develop your entrepreneurial skills through Sheridan EDGE, which provides free learning modules, networking events and mentorship from industry experts.

Open doors to more business opportunities

A business diploma from Sheridan can lead directly to your first job, professional certifications or further business studies. Our flexible pathway options can help you easily switch to a more specialized program, upgrade to an advanced diploma or even receive up to 12 credits towards a Bachelor of Business Administration degree.

or

Mature student status.

Applicant Selection

Eligible applicants are selected on the basis of previous academic achievement (the average of their six highest senior-level credits, including required courses).

Applicants who do not meet the admission requirements for this program may be advised individually regarding other related programs.

Transferring from an Ontario College

Business students who have successfully completed one or two years of their program can easily transfer their credits to another college in the province. A system-wide agreement is in place at Sheridan and other colleges, permitting students to transfer among all college business programs across Ontario. The agreement means that business students in programs such as Business General, Human Resources, Accounting and Marketing will receive full credit for their completed courses. Given the high enrolment of business programs, these pathways provide additional flexibility for a significant number of students. Interested students should apply at ontariocolleges.ca using the appropriate program entry level at the new college. For more information, email infoheridan@sheridancollege.ca

Course Exemptions

Many courses within the Business programs are eligible for Prior Learning Assessment and Recognition (PLAR). Students with experiential learning may be able to challenge certain courses. In addition, certain College or University credits may permit course exemptions. The Office of the Registrar can provide information on how to apply for course exemptions.

Program Duration

Program duration for September starts is two academic years. Program duration for January starts is 16 months continuous.

English Language Proficiency

All applicants whose first language is not English must meet Sheridan's English proficiency requirements.
