There's more to the world of writing than you think.

Prepare for a career in both writing and publishing

In this unique program, you'll gain experience in a variety of writing genres and media platforms — and be ready for a career in today's publishing industry. You'll graduate with a broad skill set that gives you the opportunity to choose a variety of career paths.

Focus on your interests

This flexible program allows you to focus on your interests and career goals. In addition to core courses in creative writing, publishing and literary studies, your program electives let you tailor your education in these three disciplines. You'll have the opportunity to take courses from Sheridan's arts and business degrees and collaborate with students in other programs.

Connect with communities

Relationships with audiences, writers and the publishing community are integral parts of being an author. In this program, you're encouraged to develop these relationships through internships, connecting with literary communities, editing and publishing literary journals, writing reviews and more. You'll have the chance to make an impact in your community of practice — and community at large.

Career opportunities

Sheridan's Honours Bachelor of Creative Writing and Publishing program gives you the skills you need to succeed as a creative writer in a variety of contexts or as a professional in today's publishing industry.

Here are some jobs you might find:

Admission requirements

Program eligibility

Ontario Secondary School Diploma or equivalent, including these required courses:

- English, Grade 12 ENG4U, or EWC4U (Writer's Craft) with a minimum grade of 70%
- Five other Grade 12 credits at U or M level
- Minimum 65% overall average

OR

- Two semesters of postsecondary education, including required courses, with a minimum of 65% overall average.

Applicant selection

Eligible applicants are selected on the basis of previous academic achievement (the average of their six highest senior-level credits, including required courses).

Applicants who do not meet the admission requirements for this program may be advised individually regarding other related programs.

Pathway opportunity

If you do not meet the admission requirements above, successfully completing 2 semesters of Sheridan's General Arts and Science – University Profile certificate program with a minimum 65% overall average will help you meet the admission requirements for this program.

The General Arts and Science – University Profile certificate program is a stepping stone to further study in your field of interest. It introduces theory and practice to students who want to assess their talent, build a skill set, and chart a course for further study.

English language proficiency

All applicants whose first language is not English must meet Sheridan's English proficiency requirements.
