Gain practical skills to launch a successful HR career in less than a year!

A changing landscape

Organizations increasingly rely on HR practitioners for strategic contributions to business success. Technology, AI, and global business competition have heightened demand for HR graduates to collaborate with business leaders. The HR Business Partner's role is vital, contributing in all functional areas of HR for effective workforce management. At Sheridan, you'll master these complexities and gain the skills to excel in HR.

Co-op experience

You'll have the opportunity to apply to the optional co-op program during your first academic semester. If admitted to the co-op program, your work term will take place during the four-month term following the second semester. Co-op positions may be paid or unpaid. This opportunity for real-world experience in an HR environment can be an invaluable asset to your career.

Additional certification

This program includes nine courses required by the Human Resources Professionals Association (HRPA) towards achieving a professional designation in Human Resources. These designations are the CHRP (Certified Human Resources Professional) and the CHRL (Certified Human Resources Leader).

Career opportunities

This well-respected program will enhance your HR career prospects. As a graduate, you'll benefit from Sheridan's excellent reputation in the business community when you are ready to look for employment. You'll also join an active and supportive professional alumni group.

Admission requirements

Program eligibility

- Postsecondary 3-year advanced diploma or
- Postsecondary 3- or 4-year degree

Or

- Postsecondary 2-year diploma* and/or
- Demonstrated competence through educational experience and/or related work experience*

Applicant selection

*Applicants who apply with a postsecondary 2-year diploma or work experience will be requested to submit a supplemental admission requirement (submission), which includes details of related work experience, and a cover letter, which summarizes your career goals and reasons for wanting to take this program. The Office of the Registrar will update your application in the Sheridan Application Portal to let you know if a submission is required.

Eligible applicants will be selected based on previous academic achievement or academic achievement and the supplemental submission.

Domestic applicants

- Postsecondary transcripts indicating courses completed to date must be submitted to ontariocolleges.ca at the time of application.
- Domestic applicants with education outside of Canada must have their transcripts assessed for equivalency through ICAS or WES. A comprehensive (course-by-course) post-secondary credential assessment is required.
- Private career college courses and/or credentials are not acceptable as admission requirements for Sheridan programs.

International applicants

- Official postsecondary transcripts, indicating courses completed to date, and credential must be submitted at the time of application. In case the transcripts/certificates are not in English, note that these documents must be accompanied by a notarized, official translation into English. Translated copies must also be accompanied by a copy of the original transcript.
- International applicants need to follow the international application process.

English language proficiency

All applicants whose first language is not English must meet Sheridan's English proficiency requirements.
