Ontario College Graduate Certificate | 1 year | Optional Coop
Hazel McCallion Campus (Mississauga) / Virtual (Online)

A fast-track route to practical skills and a career in marketing.

Things you'll learn to do

- Apply search engine marketing, social media promotion and marketing analytics principles to optimize your organization's marketing efforts.
- Learn basic marketing graphics skills to create support materials such as brochures, newsletters and web page updates.
- Write marketing and communications plans.

Co-op experience

Following eight months of classroom instruction, eligible students will have the opportunity to participate in a four-month cooperative education placement. Note that this is a competitive process and only qualified students are accepted. Working in the marketing field, you'll apply your in-class learning and gain valuable work experience that may boost your career—and help you land a great job.

Mobile computing gives flexibility

Working online is an essential skill in the workplace, and an integral part of our program. A laptop computer is mandatory. During the program, you'll use the computer to collaborate with your classmates on various assignments. In our online environment, you'll also have 24/7 access to class materials and notes and communicate with other students and your professors in our online chat room.

Career opportunities

As a graduate of Sheridan's Marketing Management program, you'll be primed for today's job market and be ready to begin work. In just one year, you'll gain real skills you can put to use right away.
