Build best practices in leadership, planning and stakeholder relations to manage projects.

Critical training

This program prepares you to initiate, plan, execute, monitor and control a project to ensure its success — whether your area of interest is the arts, community or social services, business or government administration. If you're a seasoned professional, this program provides the opportunity to learn new skills to advance your career faster.

Things you'll learn to do

- Identify clear project objectives and detailed project requirements.
- Develop and monitor performance measures.
- Create valuable project management plans.
- Manage communication with all team members and project stakeholders.
- Arrange and control finances.
- Manage project constraints including scope, quality, cost and time.

Additional certification

In addition to your graduate certificate, you may qualify to obtain professional certification through the International Project Management Association (IPMA) or the Project Management Institute (PMI®). Contact IPMA or PMI directly for more information about their credentials and your eligibility.

Admission requirements

Program eligibility

- Postsecondary 3-year advanced diploma or
- Postsecondary 3- or 4-year degree

Or

- Postsecondary 2-year diploma* and/or
- Demonstrated competence through educational experience and/or related work experience*

Applicant selection

*Applicants who apply with a postsecondary 2-year diploma or work experience will be requested to submit a supplemental admission requirement (submission), which includes details of related work experience, and a cover letter, which summarizes your career goals and reasons for wanting to take this program. The Office of the Registrar will update your application in the Sheridan Application Portal to let you know if a submission is required.

Eligible applicants will be selected based on previous academic achievement or academic achievement and the supplemental submission.

Domestic applicants
